

Please do not limit the first amendment right of free speech on XM radio. I use XM all the time and believe that traffic and weather reporting are great options while travelling. There is nothing wrong with competition in the radio business!